

Thank you for your interest in the National AAU Senior Championships originally scheduled for October 13 – 17, 2010. The Pacific District of the AAU in conjunction with the Placer Valley Tourism and Sun City Roseville have decided to postpone the event to 2011 to assure that the highest level of competition, organization, and entertainment is maintained for the Inaugural National AAU Senior Championships and its participants. Thank you for your interest and support; and we will see you in 2011.

One of the world's oldest and greatest athletic sanctioning organizations, the Amateur Athletic Union is using its strength to create an incredible experience for active adults whose competitive fires still burn! The games will be hosted by Sun City Roseville, California, conveniently located just half an hour from the Sacramento International Airport in the scenic foothills of the Sierra Nevada.

Have fun competing in the clean and green heart of the Golden State, with tons of local dining, shopping, wine tasting, museum and casino off-hours opportunities.
